HONGKONG, 9TH DECEMBER, 1881.

It has been publicly announced that over half the sum required for erecting a small Church and parsonage at the Victoria Gap has been subscribed by residents more immediately interested in the movement. Whether the proposed Church is intended for members of the Church of England, or of the Kirk of Scotland; for Dissenters or Roman Catholics; for Buddhists or Mohammedans, is not clearly stated by our evening contemporary; but we suppose it is fair to presume that all of these various sects would have a right to worship, each on his own way, seeing that the assistance of the Government is solicited. If a party of enterprising residents at the Peak like to subscribe for the erection of a church, a theatre, a public-house, or any other establishment of a public character at Victoria Gap, we do not see that it is anybody's business to interfere with persons who have a perfect right to spend their money as they please. Therefore if the residents, more (or less?) immediately interested in this movement, had decided to erect this tabernacle entirely out of their own pockets, we should have had no valid grounds for criticising the undertaking. But in this case it is not so. "A further sum of a little more than $2,000 has yet to be raised; and a subscription list is now lying at Messrs. Lane, Crawford & Co.'s for the purpose of giving those residents who desire to aid the scheme an opportunity of doing so." This public appeal at once brings the "scheme,"—a good name for the proposed undertaking, without a doubt—within the pale of public criticism. The community of Hongkong are proverbially generous, and possibly a large number may respond to this invitation, and subscribe the amount required. However, our duty in the matter is quite clear, and that is to prevent the good nature of the members of the community from being imposed upon for the support of a movement, which in the face of well-known facts, is quite unnecessary and uncalled for; while so many really deserving local charities are sorely pressed for funds to carry on their good work.

The proposed new church and parsonage at the Peak, as emblems of lazy church-going professionalism and modern Phariseism, if they ever become accomplished facts, will doubtless answer their intended requirements. But will this scheme, apparently hatched and fostered by half a dozen professional church-goers to gratify a morbid craving after notoriety, and for their own personal convenience, find sufficient favor with a practical public to induce them to furnish the necessary sinews of war? We think not; and we sincerely hope not, while so many admirably conducted charitable institutions, in the colony, of which L'Asile de la Sainte Enfance at Wanchai is an excellent example, are so badly in need of funds. If the few permanent residents at the Peak care so little for public worship that they decline to come down to the city on Sunday mornings, we think they might manage to rub along comfortably without any public spiritual counsel. If they must have their toy church and parsonage let them pay for the privileges attached thereto out of their own pockets; and not pose as saintly beggars before a public which has a sufficient number of deserving claims to attend to, without being called upon to support shallow absurdities of this description.

Before the local Government will consent to look favourably upon what the China Mail terms a "laudable proposition," we should imagine that a few inquiries will be instituted as to the necessity existing for an addition to our already numerous churches, and the claims of an insignificant number of householders at the Peak to any exclusive assistance from the public exchequer. Will the advocates and supporters of this so-called laudable scheme kindly furnish the community with the number of permanent residents at the Peak during the summer and winter months respectively? Will they kindly give the numbers of those who attend church regularly or occasionally, also of those who never go to church at all? Will they further detail the numerical strength of the various denominations, as represented up in cloud-land? Does it not strike one as reasonable to suppose that permanent dwellers on our high levels, who are so desirous of attending public worship, do not undergo very great hardships in coming down to the city once on Sunday? Is it not a safe conclusion to arrive at that temporary visitors to the health-giving regions so high up above sea-level, go up there for other purposes than church-going, and that, in fact, they would not attend service if there were a dozen churches instead of one?

The question can be drawn into very narrow limits. Government aid for the purpose of gratifying the selfish aims of a few narrow-minded sectarians, without in any way benefitting the general community, is too much of a joke to require serious consideration, so we can comfortably shelve that part of the "laudable proposition." The public may subscribe to this project, out of respect to the saintly character of the promoters; but we doubt it much in this practical age. The whole of the churches in Hongkong are not so well attended that an addition to their number is rendered either necessary or advisable. It is a matter of notoriety that the attendance at Union Church, notwithstanding the great abilities as a preacher, and general popularity of the present pastor, is the reverse of satisfactory. A church at the Gap would doubtless take away the majority of even the present select few. Before subscribing to a new church, citizens with long purses and generous spirits, should drop in at Elgin-street any Sunday morning, where the nakedness of the land, so far as the necessity for this proposed innovation, will be fully exposed.

Unless the whole business is meant simply to gratify the inordinate vanity of the prime movers for this church and parsonage, the subscribers who have really an honest and genuine desire to see a place of worship established at the Peak, will doubtless after reading the news received by last mail see their way to abandon the present project. Her Majesty's War Department has decided to erect a sanitarium for the military at the Peak, and there can be little doubt that a convenient place of worship will be included in the plans submitted for the approval of the Government. This ought to answer all reasonable requirements.

The Coroner's Inquest on the body of Captain N. Harvey, of the steamship Cleveland, who shot himself through the head at Aberdeen yesterday morning, will be held at the Government Civil Hospital at 8 o'clock this afternoon.

Says the Weekly Bulletin:—Whatever conclusion the political economists may come to, the mines and miners of the precious metal in the United States hold a fairly even hand as between gold and silver. Last year's product of gold is set down at $36,000,000, and the product of silver at $39,000,000.

The annual regatta given by the Victoria Recreation Club has been fixed for Friday the 23rd and Saturday the 24th inst. The programme is laid on similar lines to that of last year, the only notable change being the substitution of pair canoe outriggers instead of sculling skiffs in the race for the Ladies' Purse. Entries, except for the Flying Squadron, close to the Hon. Secretary, Mr. R. K. Leigh, on or before December 19th at 6 p.m.

Yesterday being the fourth anniversary of the opening of the Catholic Circle a concert was given to celebrate the event. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreens, and the exterior of the building was illuminated with a variety of Japanese lanterns. There was a large attendance present, amongst whom we noticed the Portuguese Consul, Mr. J. Loureiro, Father Burghignoli, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fleming, Messrs. J. J. Francis, A. Silveira, Remelios, and many of the leading Portuguese residents. After a few words of thanks from Mr. Silveira to the audience for their kind support of the institution, a very excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music was most satisfactorily gone through, the efforts of the various performers eliciting frequent applause.

The statement in last night's China Mail to the effect that a St. Andrew's Society has at length been organised in Hongkong is somewhat premature. The advisability of establishing in Hongkong an institution on a similar basis to that of the Calsonian Associations which are to be found in most parts of the world has been frequently mooted, and generally approved, without, however, leading to any definite result. At the annual dinner of the Stewards of the St. Andrew's Hall, held on December 1st, the subject was brought up by Mr. James Boyd and the Hon. P. Ryrie; and at a meeting of the same body on Wednesday evening the last named gentleman again introduced the question. Twenty-eight of the gentlemen present acquiesced in the proposal to establish a St. Andrew's Society, and Mr. A. MacClymont kindly consented to act as Hon. Secretary pro tem. in order to further preliminary arrangements. We are informed that a public meeting of Scotchmen will shortly be convened to settle all particulars.

We have had the opportunity afforded us of examining certain mineral specimens from Timor. A piece of of carbonaceous shale gives ground for supposing that the generally associated mineral—coal—may exist on the island in workable and payable quantities. This is a matter well worth investigating; and with the increasing trade relations between the Southern and Eastern Colonies of Australia with China and other countries, is a subject of more than ordinary importance. The position of Timor is contiguous to more than these steam trade routes; but Dutch jealousy and Portuguese poverty have contributed to retard progress, and prevent the development of the natural resources of the island. There is undeniable evidence of the presence of copper in the island, from the sample of ore submitted to us for inspection, which the specimens of copper pyrites strongly support. Here, again, is an opening for a great industrial occupation, which the Portuguese Government might turn to remunerative advantage. It is not, perhaps, generally known that the Portuguese exercise authority on one side of Timor while the Dutch claim sovereignty over the other; but evidently the more valuable portion of the island and its out-of-the-way position can alone account for its resources not having been turned to advantage.

At the meeting of United Service Lodge, No. 1,311 held last night, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected by ballot:—W. M., Bro. J. Windrum; Treasurer, Bro. W. Goulbourn; Tyler, Bro. J. Grimble.

A religious work, from the pen of Mr. Dwight L. Moody, the celebrated American Revivalist, has recently been published at Chicago. It is entitled, "Heaven, where it is; its inhabitants, and how to get there." This should prove a useful study to the enterprising promoters of the proposed new Church at the Peak.

The French frigate Thémis undocked, and the British steamer Mary Tatham docked at Aberdeen last night. The steamship Cleveland will come out of dock there this afternoon, making room for the German barque Elisa, and the German brig Sophia. The steamer Peking came over from the Cosmopolitan Dock this morning.

In Paris fifty per cent more males die from consumption than females. The population of the city is 1,988,806. The weekly increase of births over deaths averages 300. In London it averages 1,100. In New York for the week 6th to 13th September 289 more deaths were registered than births. The Paris street cars and omnibuses carry an average each week of 17,345,000 persons.

The Daring, a composite screw sloop, Commander Francis J. J. Elliot arrived at this port this morning, from Manila. The Daring was commissioned at Shoerness on the 10th of February last for the China command, and this is her first visit to Hongkong, as on arriving at Singapore she was ordered to remain there until relieved. The Mosquito was sent down recently to Singapore to take the place of the sloop, and the Daring left that port on the 18th ult. calling at Labuan on the 29th, and Manila, which port she left on the 7th inst. The following is a list of the officers:—Commander Francis J. J. Elliot, Lieut. Reginald Y. Smith, Nav.-Lieut. Henry Preedy, Lieutenant Francis G. De Lisle, Staff Surgeon James B. Drew, Paymaster John H. Clouston, Chief Engineer Thomas F. Hight, Sub-Lieut. Edward C. St. J. B. Neale, Engineer John J. Atkinson, Gunner Frederick Bryant, Carpenter Richard Taylor.

CANTON INSURANCE OFFICE.

A meeting of the shareholders of the Canton Insurance Office was held at the office of the General Agents, Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of considering a resolution for the winding up of the company, and certain proposals for its reconstitution. There were present—Hon. F. B. Johnson (Chairman), Hon. P. Ryrie, Messrs. H. L. Dalrymple, W. H. F. Darby, A. T. Manger, F. D. Sassoon, D. Ruttan-gee, T. Jackson, J. Macgregor, R. H. Hornumjee, F. H. Arjane, D. Innes, J. A. Remelios, H. G. James, H. W. Davis, K. M. Tata, E. Cowasjee, and E. F. Alford.

The Chairman said.—Gentlemen, at the annual general meeting, which was held on the 28th October, I called the attention of the shareholders to proposals which were under the consideration of the Committee and General Agents for the purpose of reorganising the office, and bringing the principles upon which it is to be conducted into complete accord with the conditions of business at the present time. To use the scientific phraseology of the day, we have felt, that if our organism is to survive among the fittest it must harmonize perfectly with its environment. I stated to that meeting that the bases of the proposed reorganization would be limitation of liability with adequate reserve of unpaid capital, accumulation of a reserve fund, wider distribution of shares, and a permanent office. Since that time the Committee have been most carefully considering the precise form in which these proposals should be submitted to the shareholders, and have also been in telegraphic communication with the London Agents on the subject. We have been animated by a desire to accomplish two objects—the one to give to all supporters of the office, whether shareholders or not, a fair proportion of the profits which they are mainly instrumental in creating, and the other to maintain as a proprietary body as wide a circle as possible of contributors—to make in effect the contributors of business as nearly as may be practically identical with the proprietary body, while not excluding from participation in the profits those who support us with business and yet may not have their names on the share list. To effect these two objects we deemed it advisable to have a wide distribution of shares of a denomination within the convenience of every class of contributor, a fixed rate of interest of 10 per cent. upon the paid-up capital to be a first charge upon the profits, and an annual appropriation, the extent of not exceeding 30 per cent. of the profits to go to reserve; the interest on reserve and the reserve fund itself to belong to the shareholders, thus guaranteeing on a first charge a good return to the shareholders upon their investments, and giving them the prospect of a growing dividend annually, according to the success of the office; the remainder of the net profits to be distributed among all contributors of business, whether shareholders or not. Our proposal in terms is to issue 10,000 shares of $250 each, representing a capital of $2,500,000, upon which $50 per share, or $500,000, will be paid up, and to offer to each shareholder in the old office a preferential allotment in the new Company of 10 shares, representing say $500 for each one of the old shares, which will represent $444.44. This preferential allotment will absorb 3,000 shares, and will leave 7,000 new shares to be offered to the public. In the distribution of these shares we think that regard should be had to the probability of the allottee be able to contribute business to the company, and that by the deed of settlement a certain power of control over transfers should be left in the hands of the Committee and General Agents. As I stated at the general meeting, in order to bring the company under the provisions of the Limited Liability Ordinance it is necessary to wind up the existing office and form a new company. For that purpose a formal resolution will be laid before you. The terms of that resolution have been duly advertised. If the resolution be carried, other proposals expressing the opinion of the meeting as to the plan of reorganization will be laid before you, and, I hope, will meet with your acceptance. As the funds of the old Company in liquidation will not be available for the purpose of the new Company, which will commence business on the 1st January, and as it will be impossible to obtain payment of the new capital by that date, the General Agents have arranged with the Committee that they will themselves pay up the capital on 500 shares, say $250,000, and deposit the money with the Company's bankers as security for the policy holders, holding the shares only until they become transferred under the arrangements of distribution. The entire capital may be depended upon to be paid up before the end of January.

Mr. Dalrymple moved—"That the Company be wound up voluntarily as from the 31st December, 1881, under the provisions of the Companies Ordinances 1865 and 1877, and that the Hon. Francis Bulkeley Johnson and Edward Fleet Alford be, and they are, hereby appointed liquidators for the purpose of such winding up."

Mr. Sassoon seconded, and the resolution was carried unanimously.

The Chairman said that really constituted the business for which the meeting was summoned. The proposals which were now to be submitted were submitted merely in order that an expression of opinion might be elicited from the shareholders present on the new constitution of the office they proposed to establish.

The Hon. P. Ryrie proposed and Mr. Darby seconded—"That the interests represented by the Canton Insurance Office, about to be wound up by the foregoing resolution, shall be formed into a Limited Company to be registered under the Companies 1865, and called the Canton Insurance Office, Limited, to commence business on the 1st January, 1882."

Carried unanimously.

Mr. Manger proposed and Mr. Darby seconded—"That the Capital of the company shall be $2,500,000 in 10,000 shares of $250 each, $50 per share paid-up. Shareholders in the Canton Insurance Office to be entitled to preferential allotments to the extent of 10

new shares for each share in the old Office.

Carried unanimously.
Mr. Rattanjo proposed and Mr. Tata seconded—"That the consulting Committee of the old Office be, and hereby are, requested to form a provisional Committee, in conjunction with the general Agents, to give effect to the foregoing proposals, by issuing a prospectus, drawing up articles of association, and inviting applications for shares."

Carried unanimously.
The Chairman said that concluded the business of the meeting. The prospectuses were already in the hands of the printer, and would be circulated amongst the shareholders and the public with as little delay as possible. He thanked those present for their attendance.—Daily Press.

THE TEMPERANCE HALL CONCERTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."
Sir,—I was glad to notice the paragraph in yesterday's Telegraph on the subject of the concert at the Temperance Hall. The person you refer to, who is supposed to manage these concerts, has apparently lost his head by being patronised by a few members of the musical upper circles of our would-be aristocratic community. When these concerts were first established at the old house in Stanley Street I was a frequent performer; but in those days the entertainments were given for the amusement of sailors and soldiers, and not, as is now the case, to gratify the vanity of a select circle of civilians, who constitute both performers and the best part of the audience. It was gratifying to me to read your remarks on the want of politeness exhibited towards yourself by the organisers of the concert, for it is not to you alone, but also to many others, who have for years mainly contributed to the success of the fortnightly Temperance Hall concerts, that the same disrespect has been shown. One of the principal contributors for a long time to the entertainments at Stanley Street, was left out in the cold on the occasion of the inauguration of the present hall, in favour of two or three members of the Choral Society, who were anxious not to gratify soldiers and sailors but to appear before His Excellency the Governor, who presided. That was the way the person who manages these concerts required the services of a gentleman who had frequently contributed to the success of these concerts, without whose aid they could not have been held at all. Toadyism should be kept out of a public institution.—Yours, &c.,

H. H. THE MAHARAJAH'S DRAG HOUNDS.

The following is an account, by the special correspondent of the Singapore Times, of a meet of H. H. the Maharajah's drag hounds:—Drag-hunting with the Maharajah's hounds bids fair to become the most popular sport in the Colony. Each meet attracts some new face, and once the delicious excitement of a run has been tasted, few can resist the temptation to partake of it again and again. One cannot have a surfeit of such enjoyment.

The bugbear of many who have not yet gone out is pig-pits. It would be easy to show that there is no occasion for alarm on this score, but perhaps people who are faked by mythical dangers would succumb altogether under the slight mishaps that are incidental to the sport, and it is probably to the advantage of all that they should stay away. They are losers by their fears, and we, from the lofty standpoint of experience, can afford to look down upon them with indifference, or, let us say, pity.

During the past week the hounds have not been idle. Holley and Nash have shown the way over a good deal of country, and two more have to be added to the already long list of the "best runs that have ever been known."

On Saturday, the 19th, there was a good meet at Tanglein Club. Trotting up the Coconut Grove, the hounds picked up the line of the drag just inside the plantation at the Bukit Timah end, and doubling back ran in full cry past the back of Mount Victoria across Stevens Road, and up to the back of Captain Ross's new houses. Here turning sharp to the right, the Government reserve was the next point made for, but skirting it and by a wide detour, Cluny Road was reached. Up to this point the casualties were limited to one horse and rider fast in a bog, one rider shot over his horse's head, one difference of opinion between a pony and his rider in which the former scored; but nothing in the slightest degree serious. After crossing Cluny Road and encircling Mr. Geiger's house, the hounds ran on to the Maharajah's grounds, giving tongue the whole way, and getting on the turf in the avenue, went off at a tremendous pace, turning off to the right just as Tiersall came in sight. From the avenue a splendid view was got of the remainder of the run up to the finish, which took place near the barracks in a hornet's nest, much to the discomfort of one or two of the field. The fences were all in the second half of the run, and occasioned the temporary separation of several of the riders from their horses, but the spills were of an ordinary character. A father and son, who in the last run got thrown out at the beginning, quite regained their character as bold riders, being in the front from first to last.

On Friday, the 25th (yesterday), the Racecourse was the appointed place of meeting, and it was announced that ladies would be able to follow, the line of country having been specially selected. We did not notice any of the fair sex present, but at the ladies' meet men mustered in strong force. The run was barren of any incidents worth describing, being, right through, one hard gallop over goodish country, but a prettier sight than the hounds following the scent along the racecourse could not be imagined. The rails were taken by the huntsman and a local jock in grand style, but the other members of the field showed that they thought discretion was the better part of valour by keeping outside. There were two water jumps at the finish, over which all got successfully, but one man was seen to frantically embrace the neck of his horse for some reason or other. It was a jolly good gallop, and ladies would have enjoyed it.

TIENTSIN.

The water is very low both on the bar and in the river, steamers usually take two tides to reach Tientsin.

The Hasting was three days and a half outside waiting for water. The Oscar Vidal is discharging her cargo in one of the lower reaches, and then it may be possible to tow her off before we are frozen up. There is a rumour of our local Shipping Report being formed into a sheet, the size of letter paper, and published as a newspaper on a small scale, giving general and local items of news, with a list of the shipping in port, and a weekly market report. Should it prove to be true, I will try and send you a copy. We have sharp frosts every night, and bright, bracing weather. A Rifle Club has been formed in Tientsin, and a fine range secured eight hundred yards long, beyond the defence wall, so your crack shots had better keep up their practice, for we have many eagle-eyed men here who delight in ringing the ball's eyes, and it will be an easy matter to have friendly contests, now the electric wire unites us. The war-vessels Ashuelot and Morge are getting housed over for the winter. Can it be true that the Cross of St. George will be conspicuous by its absence during the winter at Tientsin? The Admiral might have sent us a gunboat, even if only a little one, to cheer and comfort our lonely British hearts through the long and dreary winter. Your recent observations on the working of the guns in the new gunboats are very just, what is required are four seaman gunners, who have been well trained, and a gunnery lieutenant for such gunboats, these men will do the work for which they come out and will be able to teach the crews the practical working of the guns. But China ought to establish a naval school, and adopt some uniform practice, and give over the international pot pourri business. Yes, it is true the old warrior, General Tso, leaves Peking in two weeks for his home in Hunan before he assumes the Governor-Generalship of the Saing-Kiang.—Shanghai Courier Correspondent.

A wag circulated a report that a certain rich old farmer had been "running rapidly through his property." The farmer called on him to "retract the slander," when the wag said he saw him "running through his property" with his brindle bull after him.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

THIS DAY, One P.M.

Banks are decidedly firmer this morning, offers to buy at 113 per cent. premium, meeting with no response. We should think that business will shortly be transacted at a higher rate. Fire Insurance shares remain unchanged; but Sugars are again rather weaker, and could be procured we think without difficulty at 158. The Dock Company's stock is still on offer at 33, and shows indications of seeing a lower quotation before leading to much business. The only actual transactions booked since our last issue have been in connection with Steamboats. We chronicle a few sales in this stock yesterday at 24 per share premium, and have now to report further sales at the same rate. The inquiry for the Ice Company's shares at 128, as we anticipated, did not lead to business.

The Lord Justice's charge to the grand jury in the Leftroy case is a somewhat curious utterance. He began by calling attention to the fact that he, the Lord Justice, had brought to the consideration of the case "a mind happily impartial," and having given an account of the result of the depositions, he went on to cuff the police with one hand and caress them with the other. What they had done and what they had left undone in this matter seemed to him odd; but, on the other hand, it was to be remembered that their position was not an easy one. "They have a difficult duty to perform," said the Lord Justice; and added, needlessly enough, "and persons in my position have also a difficult duty to perform." However, the Lord Justice's remarks on the difficulties which the English police have to contend with are worth attention: A French agent can find out pretty nearly everything about any man with whom he has to deal in any way professionally by reference to his dossier, and he has far wider powers of interference than are given to the English policeman, who has to skate on thin ice, at the risk not only of falling through but of being reprimanded if he does fall through. It may be doubted if these considerations will excuse the particular blunder referred to, but it is perhaps only fair to keep them in mind.—Gill Blase, in Overland Mail.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE.

THE GREAT NORTHERN TELEGRAPH COMPANY (amalgamated with the Oriental Telephone Company, Limited, as regards Telephone Lines in Hongkong and China) with transfer of Alexander Graham Bell, Arnold White, Frederick Gower, & Co., &c.

BELL AND EDISON'S SYSTEM.

Permission having been granted by the Government to establish a Telephone Exchange in Hongkong, the above Company hereby beg to invite Subscriptions from the Public.

Throughout Europe and America Telephone Exchanges have gained such a reputation by facilitating daily intercourse and by ensuring the safety of private and public property, that they may now be considered indispensable in all large Cities and Business Centres. Hongkong with its vast commercial transactions and valuable property is essentially a place, where a well conducted Telephone Exchange will be of the greatest use, and in laying this Prospectus before the Public, the Company hopes that it may count upon the general support not only of the merchants and professional members of the Community, but also of the different Government Departments in order to render the service as efficient as possible.

The Exchange will be worked in the following way, viz.: a head Office will be established in the central part of the town provided with the best Telephone appliances according to the newest and most approved European and American inventions. Each subscriber will be supplied with a complete set of Instruments and will be put in direct communication with the central office by separate wires.

When wishing to use the Telephone, a Subscriber will only have to call the Central Station and give the name of the party, he wishes to speak with, the wires are then immediately switched together, and the two Subscribers will be in direct communication with each other. When they have finished, the Central Office is notified to that effect by a Bell Signal, the wires are then disconnected, and any other connection can be made if desired and so on. The dialogue between the subscribers is of course quite private and can only be heard by the two parties concerned. It should distinctly be understood, that the message are not spoken to the Central Office, and thence transmitted to the persons to be communicated with, but the two wires are simply switched together, thus forming one continuous line, over which conversation can be carried with perfect ease and privacy.

Hongkong, 15th June, 1881.

The Central Office will, if practicable, be open to the general public so that any person can thence communicate with the Subscribers. For this service non-subscribers would have to pay a small fee according to the time they occupy the wire.

The Telephones used by the Company are the Combination Bell-Edison. These Instruments which are far superior to all other Telephones on account of their great distinctness of sound combined with easy management, have met with unrivalled success throughout the world, and are now also adopted by the British Government Departments in England and India.

The subscription fee will to some extent depend upon the number of subscribers, but the price will not exceed $150 per annum for town subscribers. The following boundaries will be taken as terminating the town, viz.: West.—The Gas Works. East.—Police Station No. 2. South.—Caine Road and Kennedy Road, etc. Subscribers outside these limits would have to pay a proportionally higher charge according to the length of wire required and the difficulties to be overcome in constructing and maintaining the line. The subscription will be binding for one year, payable quarterly in advance.

All maintenance expenses of Instruments and wires are included in the above price, and the subscribers will have nothing to pay beyond the fixed annual charge.

The Central Office will be under competent supervision, and an efficient staff of clerks will be in attendance during office hours.

The Company will also undertake to make private arrangements for persons wishing to be in direct communication with their offices, godowns, etc., and to take over the maintenance of such lines at reasonable charge.

In order to expedite the work, subscribers are requested to send in their names to the undersigned agent at an early date.

Should sufficient support not be received, the Company is not bound to establish the Exchange.
